

Dolphin Days

Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic School

November 9, 2023

Dolphin Days is a two-page document. If you are viewing it from your device, make sure you click on the image of the Newsletter, and it will open the two pages through a web browser.

At MBS we continue to explore the Beatitude: Blessed are the Meek, for they will inherit the land. The meekness references the recognition of the wonder and awe of God. We stand in meekness in those moments when we are aware of the God's presence in our time and space. To recognize our meekness before God requires us to enter prayer with God. It calls us to set aside the busyness of our lives for a pause each day and to experience the grandeur of God enveloping each of us. It is at these moments that God swoops us into God's presence and we know what it means to "inherit the land," that is, to be blessed in the Kingdom of God.

Veteran's Day is Saturday, November 11. In honor and appreciation for the men and women who have served their country in the military, students are invited to wear red, white, and blue accessories tomorrow (Nov 10) with their MBS Spirit Shirt and PE or regular uniform pants. We are thankful for their dedication to our country and for our freedoms.

We are excited for the Roaring 20's Gala event to take place tomorrow. We would like to thank all the volunteers who have put countless hours into this event to ensure its success. We are truly grateful. Please remember we have a 12:00 dismissal with No extended day services.

The end of the trimester is fast approaching on November 21st.

Let Us Build the Kingdom of God

Mrs. Stillman
Principal

The production of Magic Tree House: The Knight at Dawn Kids

We are so proud of our 3rd and 4th grade student actors. They did a fantastic job! Thank you to the middle school students for helping with costumes, makeup, light, sound, and stage crews. Mrs. Gallagher for her time and talent on the set design.

Mrs. Selba, Mrs. Cover, Mrs. Marshall, and Mrs. Waegle for all their time and dedication with hours of practice to prepare the students for their roles. And to our parents who volunteered their time: Mr. Deale, stage construction and Mrs. Windsor, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Kruper, and Mrs. Combs for costumes.

Box of Joy

Thank you so much to our wonderful MBS families for donating to Box of Joy!
Our 8th graders are giving service and helping collect and pack the boxes before they ship out next week. We will provide the number of boxes that we collected in next week's newsletter.

Thank you and God Bless you all!

Joe Corbi's orders will be delivered Thursday, November 16th. Instructions on pick-up will be sent home next week.

Health Suite

Hello parents! If your student has an inhaler or epi-pen, PLEASE send it into school as soon as possible. Their doctor will also need to send us a medication authorization form. These medications are crucial for me to take proper care of your child. This can be found on our website or stop into my office for one. Is your student missing their jacket or sweater? Our lost and found is filling up fast! Please remember to label your child's jackets, sweaters, and water bottles. Remember to email attendance@mbscs.org if your student will be absent.

Counselor Corner

Parents, please read the following from Common Sense Media.

Scholastic Book Fair

Thank you, parents, students and teachers, for making our fall book fair such a success! The students had so much fun shopping for their books and looking over the selections. This was our most successful book fair to date and the proceeds will benefit the library with more books, supplies, equipment, and furniture.
