Parent Community

At MBS, education extends far beyond academics — it's about growing together in faith, service, and community. Our families play an active role in school life, joining together at events, celebrations, and volunteer opportunities that strengthen the bonds of fellowship. Each family contributes 20 volunteer hours each year, helping to enrich our programs, support our students, and live out the values of service and connection that define MBS.

"Our family joined Most Blessed Sacrament in 2020 when our oldest daughter was starting in first grade. Now, six years later, we have three daughters enrolled at MBS. From the very beginning, we felt embraced not only by the teachers, who treat every child as their own, but also by the entire school community. We have built lasting friendships, enjoyed the many family-centered events and fundraisers, and watched our children grow in both faith and academics. We have complete peace knowing our children are safe, loved, and nurtured every day. It truly feels like a family."
